can someone please alter supportbee so I don't receive ANY email messages except something assigned to me or something i am tagged in. I just can't manage the duplicate email flow anymore. things are getting lost.

I am adding you all as admins on Google for LAH. It's not a transfer thing, it's just about admins. The company owns the account, as it is a Google for NonProfits free account.

As far as the exitusa domain, I promise to get to it when I can. Frankly, though, it's not even on my priority list and last time I tried it took me a whole day of trying and it didn't work.
